TracksSold

- Most Popular Genres: The most popular genre is Rock, with 835 tracks sold, followed by Latin (386) and Metal (264), demonstrating a strong preference for Rock and related genres among customers. Less popular genres like Easy Listening, Comedy, and Science Fiction show significantly lower sales, with fewer than 10 tracks sold.
Which music genres are the most popular based on the number of tracks sold?
- Top Customers: The top customer, Helena Holý, spent the most at $49.62, closely followed by Richard Cunningham ($47.62) and Luis Rojas ($46.62). The top five customers collectively represent significant contributors to total revenue.

Who are the top 5 customers based on total spending?

Revenue

USA    Canada    France    Brazil    Germany
United Kingdom    Czech Republic    Portugal    India    Chile
Ireland    Hungary    Austria    Finland    Netherlands
Norway    Sweden    Spain    Poland    Italy
Denmark    Belgium    Australia    Argentina

- Total Revenue by Country: The USA leads in revenue generation with $523.06, followed by Canada ($303.96) and France ($195.10), reflecting strong sales in North America and parts of Europe. Other countries like Argentina and Australia contribute lower revenue at $37.62 each, indicating varied customer activity across regions.

What is the total revenue generated in each country?

SALES
- Top 5 Most Sold Tracks: The most sold tracks, including "Balls to the Wall," "Inject The Venom," and "Snowballed," each recorded 2 sales, highlighting a relatively even distribution of track popularity with no standout track dominating sales.

What are the top 5 most sold tracks?